third street, Judge Howell announced that he would render a decision next Saturday morning.

For several days the matter has been before the court. A number of witnesses have been examined on behalf of both interests and the matter of safe and suitable crossings at the intersections of rall-roads has been argued by attorneys and explained by witnesses.

Judge Howell said Monday afternoon that he was of the opinion that the interurban road should be required to either construct an overhead crossing or install an interlocking switch system at the point, but as to which alternative would be required, the court gave no intimation. The question as to the right of the interurban road to cross its tracks is not being contested by the Harriman roads. The only point upon which the controversy hinges is just what manner of crossing should be required.

BAMBERGER ROAD WILL ENTER OGDEN BY MAY 30

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN. April 29.—Simon Bamberger declared to a party of newspaper men, who were his guests on a tour of inspection of the Sait Lake & Ogden railroad Monday, that the interurban would enter Ogden by Decoration day. Work on the big "fill" about two miles from the city is progressing at a lively rate, and a huge mountain of sand near that point is being rapidly reduced by the hydraulic system. Arrangements have been made for the operation of an automobile "bus" into irom the mouth of Ogden canyon to the Oaks. A schedule of excursions from Ogden to Lagoon also has been arranged, beginning June 2, indicating that work will be pushed and that nothing will be allowed to interfere with the early completion of the line. The excursions are as follows: June 2, joint excursion are as follows: June 2, joint excursion of the Ogand Army of the Republic; June 18, State Maccabees; June 20, United Commercial Travelers; June 24, Scandinavian reamion; June 25, Scotch Thistic club of Sait Lake City and Scotch Cronies of Ogden; July 15, Weber stake day, including all the wards, Sunday-schools and M. THIRTEEN DAYS' PAY FOR WORK IN APRIL Court Intimates That Inter- S. P. Shopmen Are Laid Off Until Provo Council Is Restrained Cattlemen and Sheepmen Have May 1: Slim Pay Checks.

> OGDEN. April 29.—When the shop force of the Southern Pacific returned to work Monday morning after an enforced layoff since last Wednesday, they found placards posted in conspicuous places announcing that their services would not be needed until May 1.
> When the layoff was ordered last Wednesday It was sentily understood. When the layoff was ordered last Wednesday it was generally understood that the men would be allowed to return to work Monday morning for a brief spell anyway, but there was "nothing doing" in the work line at the shops when the full force of about five hundred men turned up for work. So they turned right around and went back home again until the Southern Pacific gives the word. The numerous "layoffs" naturally have caused considerable complaint, especially as there is, according to the men sufficient work now on hand in the shops to keep the full force at work for several months. The employees will, owing to the frequent layoffs, receive pay for only thirteen days for the month of April.

Former Attorney-General Bagley of Idaho, now a resident of Salt Lake City, who had been trying a murder case here, and J. H. Ryckman, a local attorney, were appealed to. At 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening they filed a petition asking for an injunction against the cattle men. The petition was presented to Judge Craig in the District court here. At 9 o'clock p. m. the plaintiffs and witnesses appeared before the Judge, who, after hearing the evidence, signed a temporary restraining order. This was done at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night.

The plaintiffs in this case own 12.000 acres of land in the district where they are ranging their sheep, and they propose to fight the matter to a finish in the courts. The probabilities are that at least one hundred other suits will be filed. The State can keep the peace temporarily, but the matter of range will finally have to be settled by legislation by Congress. done. Water Supply for 1908 Will Be Below That of Former Years

The water resources branch of the United States Geological Survey has received reports from various parts of the Great Basin district which show that the water supply for the year 1908 will be far below that of average years. The Great Basin district includes the States of Idaho, Utah and Navada.

While the run-off for 1907 was above the average, the record for the month of March, 1908, shows little more than half the run-off when compared with the corresponding month of the previous year. This statement is substantiated by the official records given below for representative streams in the three States; this information is collected by the water resources branch, United States Geological Survey, under the direction of E.
